

Licensure renewal for active duty military:

Effective November 1, 2012, any license held by a deployed member of the military may be extended with no fee [59 O.S. §4100.6]. If this applies to you, please submit prior to the expiration date of your license, a written request or extension of your license with no fee, with copies of the official orders of the deployment and the official orders identifying the date of your return.
